Supported by:

David Melding \(South Wales Central\) R

6 Welsh Conservatives Debate

(60 mins)

NDM6021 Paul Davies \(Preseli Pembrokeshire\)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the immense achievement of the Welsh national football team in participating in the current Euro 2016 championships in France.
2. Recognises the role Wales's involvement in the tournament could play in encouraging participation in sport, improving public health levels and creating an ongoing legacy for our elite athletes.
3. Expresses concern at the findings of the recent Welsh Government Health Survey, which emphasised the scale of the public health challenges facing Wales and identified that 24 per cent of adults are classified as obese and 59 per cent of adults classified as overweight or obese.
4. Believes that the Welsh Government must work with governing bodies and key partners to utilise events such as Wales's qualification to, and participation in, the Euro 2016 finals, to improve public health and inspire greater participation in physical activity.

The following amendment has been tabled

Amendment 1 – Simon Thomas \(Mid and West Wales\)

Insert as new point 4 and renumber accordingly:

Regrets cuts to grassroots sports in Wales.

7 Plaid Cymru Debate

(60 mins)

NDM6022 Simon Thomas \(Mid and West Wales\)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the publication of the Wales Bill;
2. Regrets the omission of the devolution of policing;
3. Regrets the failure to establish a distinct or separate legal jurisdiction; and
4. Regrets the lost opportunity to devolve the administration of justice.

The following amendment has been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Paul Davies \(Preseli Pembrokeshire\)

Delete all after point 1 and replace with:

Welcomes the Bill as a foundation for a fuller constitutional settlement.

Commends the statements of both the Welsh Government and the UK Government to cooperate during the legislative process to achieve the best outcome for the people of Wales.

Believes that the Bill offers the opportunity to bring greater balance to the British constitution and so strengthen the Union.
