

Environment and Sustainability Committee

Inquiry into Energy Policy and Planning in Wales

EPP 127 – Newport Area Environment Group

The priority must be to reduce carbon emissions and to increase energy security for Wales.

This should be achieved from a mix of renewable energies - not from nuclear or coal.

(If the Environment Agency reduced their licence charges, micro-hydro would have huge potential in Wales.)

Imogen Morley

Secretary NAEG

<http://naeg.org.uk/>